POLICY STATEMENT

Revised October 2017

Purpose:

1. To recognize alumni who have experienced career success as well as a significant contribution to their community.
2. To provide positive role models for the present student body at Adam Scott Collegiate.
3. To provide a resource for the school in the form of speakers and community contacts.
4. To provide continuity between present and previous graduates.

Selection Criteria:

1. Inductees must be a graduate of Adam Scott C.V.I. and have attended Adam Scott for a minimum of three full academic years.
2. Inductees will have demonstrated career success and community contribution since graduation.
3. Inductees will represent a broad spectrum of Adam Scott's graduate population.

Procedure:

1. Inductees will be sought from the community at large through notices in local media.
2. The applications will be reviewed and inductees selected by the Adam Scott Hall of Honour Committee.
3. The number of successful applications will vary from year to year.
4. If selected, inductees will be recognized at the school's annual Commencement through the hanging of a framed color portrait. Inductees will be asked to provide two photos (one 8x10 and one 5x7) which will be framed by the school. Photos must not contain commercial promotion.
5. Unsuccessful applicants may be reconsidered the following year.
6. Annual Deadlines:
  - a) Nominations are due January 12th.
  - b) Photos and biography are due April 15th.
